

Multiple choice questions - true or false?

Test your assessment design knowledge by reading the following statements and deciding whether you think they are true or false.

Distractors

Q1	You should use common student misconceptions as a source for designing distractors.	<input type="checkbox"/>
		<input type="checkbox"/>
Q2	You should ensure that all distractors are implausible.	<input type="checkbox"/>
		<input type="checkbox"/>

Language

Q3	It is best practice to avoid using negative words such as 'not' in complex sentences.	<input type="checkbox"/>
		<input type="checkbox"/>
Q4	Conditional words such as 'would' and 'should' are an effective way of testing understanding.	<input type="checkbox"/>
		<input type="checkbox"/>

Unintentional cues

Q5	The length of the options should vary.	<input type="checkbox"/>
		<input type="checkbox"/>
Q6	You should avoid absolute words such as 'all' or 'never'.	<input type="checkbox"/>
		<input type="checkbox"/>

Inside Exams
Podcast series

