- One of the tasks is a ! – this is the unprepared task. Ask the question clearly.
- One of the tasks is marked with a ? – the student asks a question based on the prompt.

- A question may be paraphrased provided the same meaning is maintained.
- If a student gives a very long response and may go over the maximum time, it may be better to interrupt and move on.

Foundation general conversation criteria: communication

Marks	Response
3-4	A speaker who is able only to give very short responses. Any attempts at slightly longer responses or at narrating events tend to be very unclear or even unintelligible. There may be occasions where the speaker is unable to respond.

0	Communication does not meet the standard required for Level 1 at this Tier.

Foundation general conversation criteria: range and accuracy of language

Marks	Response
9-10	Generally good language which involves mainly simple linguistic structures and vocabulary, with some repetition, but with attempts to use more complex linguistic structures and more varied vocabulary. There is some success in making reference to past and future, as well as present, events. Although there may be errors they do not generally impede comprehension.
7-8	Reasonable language which uses simple structures and vocabulary and may be repetitive at times. Any attempts to make reference to past or future events may have only limited success. There may be frequent errors, which may occasionally impede communication.
5-6	Basic language which uses simple structures and vocabulary and may often be repetitive. There is little or no success in making reference to past or future events. There are likely to be frequent errors, which sometimes impede communication.

Foundation general conversation criteria: range and accuracy of language

Marks	Response
3-4	Limited language which uses very simple structures and vocabulary and is likely to be repetitive. There is little or no success in making reference to past or future events. There are likely to be frequent errors which regularly impede communication.
1-2	Very poor language which may show little understanding of how the language works. There are likely to be errors in the vast majority of sentences, or there may be so little said that it is impossible to make a judgement.
0	The language does not meet the standard required for Level 1 at this Tier.

Foundation general conversation criteria: pronunciation and intonation

Marks	Response
5	Generally good but some inconsistency at times
4	Pronunciation generally understandable with some intonation

1	Pronunciation is only just understandable making comprehension difficult
0	Pronunciation and intonation do not meet the standard required for Level 1 at this Tier

Foundation general conversation criteria: spontaneity and fluency

Marks	Response
5	Generally good exchange in which the speaker shows some spontaneity, but also relies on pre-learnt responses. Sometimes hesitates and may not be able to respond to some questions.
4	Reasonable exchange in which the speaker shows a little spontaneity, but much of what is said involves pre-learnt responses. The flow is often broken by hesitation and delivery can be quite slow at times.

Foundation general conversation criteria: spontaneity and fluency

Marks	Response
2	Limited exchange in which the speaker may show no spontaneity and all successful responses may be pre-learnt. Hesitates frequently, and often at length, before answering questions. Slow delivery means that the conversation lacks any flow.
1	Poor exchange in which the speaker hesitates at length before answering most questions, which makes the conversation very disjointed. Often cannot answer questions, while at other times there may be pre-learnt responses.
0	Spontaneity and fluency do not meet the standard required for Level 1 at this Tier.

Higher general conversation criteria: communication

Marks	Response
9 – 10	A speaker who consistently develops responses in extended sequences of speech. Narrates events coherently when asked to do so. Conveys information clearly at all times, giving and explaining opinions convincingly.
