Council to Sell Meadows

In a move that will come as a shock to many, the council is considering granting planning permission for the controversial sale of Green Park Meadows. This will allow the meadows to be developed for housing and retail outlets. The developers, Antler Estates, have also submitted plans for a leisure complex, incorporating a bowling alley and slot machine arcade.

The meadows are popular in the wider community for their unspoilt appearance and abundant wildlife, as well as for the small lake which is a focal point for local anglers.

Here at The Sentinel we would welcome your views, whether for or against the planned developments.
