EitherOthello* – William Shakespeare

0	9
---	---

Refer to Act 1 Sc 3,

beginning

‘I pray you hear her speak.’ and

ending

‘Let me go with him.’

This interaction occurs in the middle of the scene. Othello has been explaining how his secret relationship with Desdemona developed. Othello has requested that Desdemona be brought before the Senate to further explain their decision to elope without Brabantio’s knowledge.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, examine how and why Shakespeare presents characters’ challenges to authority at different points in the play.

[45 marks]*or

1	0
---	---

Refer to Act 5 Sc 2,

beginning

‘Where is this rash and most unfortunate man?’ and

ending

‘And smote him thus.’

This interaction occurs at the end of the scene. Othello has killed Desdemona. Lodovico has arrived in the bedchamber to arrest Othello and informs Othello of Iago’s plot against him and Cassio.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, examine how and why Shakespeare presents characters’ feelings of being outsiders at different points in the play.

[45 marks]

or

All My Sons – Arthur Miller

1 1

Refer to Act 1,

beginning

'[picks a few petals off ground, stands there smelling them in her hand, then sprinkles them over plants.] No more roses.' and

ending

'We're like at a railroad station waiting for a train that never comes in.'

This interaction occurs near the beginning of Act 1. Chris and Keller have been worrying about Kate's reaction to the fallen tree that is Larry's memorial and Larry's ex-fiancée Ann's arrival. Kate and Chris talk about Ann, and Kate reveals her nightmare the previous night.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, examine how and why Miller presents characters' feelings of loss at different points in the play.

[45 marks]

or

1 2

Refer to Act 2,

beginning

'[stops, looks around at them and the place] I never felt at home anywhere but here.' and

ending

'Go, George! [They disappear up the driveway, Ann saying, 'Don't take it that way, Georgie! Please don't take it that way.']'

This interaction occurs near the end of Act 2. The Kellers have calmed George down and he has agreed to go to dinner with them. They then accidentally reveal that Joe has not been ill in many years, despite flu being the reason he gave for not knowing that faulty parts were being shipped to the military.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, examine how and why Miller presents characters' fears of discovery at different points in the play.

or

A Streetcar Named Desire – Tennessee Williams

1	3
---	---

Refer to Scene 5,

beginning

‘Stella! What have you heard about me?’ and

ending

‘I can leave here and not be anyone’s problem.’

This interaction occurs near the middle of the scene. Stanley has been trying to prove that Blanche knows Shaw, a man who claims to have met her at the Hotel Flamingo in Laurel. She asks Stella whether Stanley has been talking about her and hints to Stella that she had reasons to leave Laurel.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, examine how and why Williams presents characters’ anxieties at different points in the play.

[45 marks]

or

or

The Herd – Rory Kinnear

1	5
---	---

Refer to the section,

‘Actually shaking. How does she do it?’ and

ending (page 7)

‘Well quite. But there you are, it was a boat I didn’t feel like rocking.’

This interaction occurs near the beginning of the play. Carol has been on the phone to Andy’s carer confirming that Andy is on his way to the birthday party planned for him later at home. Carol is complaining to Claire about the way that Andy’s carer speaks to her.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, examine how and why Kinnear presents characters’ strong reactions to others at different points in the play.

[45 marks]

or

1	6
---	---

Refer to the section,

beginning (page 48)

‘I presumed I wouldn’t have been welcome.’ and

ending (page 50)

‘And you don’t think that might have had anything to do with it?’

This interaction occurs near the end of the play. Carol, Patricia and Claire have left the house to go to the hospital to see Andy who is now too ill to attend his party. Ian and Brian remain at the house.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, examine how and why Kinnear presents characters’ disappointments at different points in the play.
