You now need to think about the WHOLE of the source.

This text is from the beginning of a novel.

How has the writer structured the text to interest you as a reader?

You could write about:

- what the writer focuses your attention on at the beginning of the source
- how and why the writer changes this focus as the source develops
- any other structural features that interest you.

Focus this part of your answer on the second part of the source, from LINE 26 TO THE END.

A student said, ‘While it seems that the old man is widely seen as a failure, in this part of the story the writer shows that the boy still has faith in him and that they greatly respect each other.’

To what extent do you agree?

In your response, you could:

- consider your impressions of the old man as a failure
- evaluate how the writer presents the respect between the boy and the old man
- support your response with references to the text.

Your local newspaper is running a creative writing competition and the best entries will be published.

EITHER

Write a description of a fishing village, as suggested by the picture on the opposite page:

The image, on the opposite page, shows a harbour in a fishing village. There are small fishing boats in the harbour and a wide, stone harbour wall. On top of the harbour wall there are boxes, nets, lobster pots and other fishing equipment. In the distance, there are many small houses on the side of the hill which rises up beside the harbour.

OR

Write a story about an unlikely friendship.
