SECTION B

Choose ONE topic from this section and answer ALL the questions on that topic.

TOPIC B1 CULTURE AND IDENTITY

0	3
---	---

Define the term ‘stereotype’. [2 marks]

0	4
---	---

Using ONE example, briefly explain how an individual’s sexuality may shape their social experiences. [2 marks]

0	5
---	---

Outline THREE features of the postmodernist view of identity. [6 marks]

0	6
---	---

Outline and explain TWO ways in which changes in work may have affected social class identity.
[10 marks]

0	7
---	---

Read ITEM A below and answer the question that follows.

ITEM A

Globalisation is now a significant feature of society. Some sociologists argue that the impact of globalisation is to undermine the traditional sources of people's national identity and open up a range of choices for individuals.

Alternatively, other sociologists see the rise of nationalism as a reaction to the perceived threat of globalisation.

Applying material from ITEM A and your knowledge, evaluate the impact of globalisation on individuals' national identity in the United Kingdom. [20 marks]

TOPIC B2 FAMILIES AND HOUSEHOLDS

0	8
---	---

Define the term 'birth rate'. [2 marks]

0	9
---	---

Using ONE example, briefly explain how the experience of childhood may differ between ethnic groups.

[2 marks]

1	0
---	---

Outline THREE features of the symmetrical family.

[6 marks]

1	1
---	---

Outline and explain TWO ways in which government policies may have affected gender roles in the family.

[10 marks]

1	2
---	---

Read ITEM B below and answer the question that follows.

ITEM B

In common with many Western societies, the United Kingdom has an ageing population. Rising life expectancy and a relatively low birth rate has meant that the average age of the population is rising. This can have a positive impact and provide an opportunity to reconsider the role of older people in families and wider society.

However, others point to the impact on families and wider society of older people no longer being in paid work.

Applying material from ITEM B and your knowledge, evaluate the impact of an ageing population on families and wider society. [20 marks]

TOPIC B3 HEALTH

1	3
---	---

Define the term ‘social construction’ of mental illness.
[2 marks]

1	4
---	---

Using ONE example, briefly explain how individuals with a disability may have difficulty getting the healthcare they need. [2 marks]

1	5
---	---

Outline THREE cultural factors that may explain social class differences in health chances. [6 marks]

1	6
---	---

Outline and explain TWO ways in which gender patterns of health may be affected by gender differences in accessing health care from medical professionals.
[10 marks]

1	7
---	---

Read ITEM C below and answer the question that follows.

ITEM C

Some sociologists argue that global pharmaceutical companies ('big pharma') have a negative impact on patient wellbeing and society as a whole. They point to the general medicalisation of aspects of social life as well as specific examples of negative consequences of some drug treatments.

Supporters of global pharmaceutical companies point to the substantial advances in medical knowledge that continue to be driven by these companies.

Applying material from ITEM C and your knowledge, evaluate the view that global pharmaceutical companies have a negative impact on patient wellbeing and society as a whole. [20 marks]

2	1
---	---

Outline and explain TWO reasons why people with disabilities may NOT be able to access work opportunities. [10 marks]

2	2
---	---

Read ITEM D below and answer the question that follows.

ITEM D

Some sociologists argue that in industrial society technology is often used to control workers. Recently this has been extended by the use of surveillance technology in the workplace.

However, other sociologists argue that technology can liberate workers. Technology can bring flexibility to the workplace and give workers control over their own work.

Applying material from ITEM D and your knowledge, evaluate the view that technology is used to control workers. [20 marks]
