

A builder is putting insulation under the floor of a loft.
One roll of insulation covers 5.92 m^2 .
Rolls may be cut and joined.

Here is the plan view of the loft.

Scale 1 centimetre represents 2 metres

How many rolls of insulation does the builder need?